

Cayman Prep and High School Cookie Policy

Cookies

Cayman Prep and High School's website uses cookies, which are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites you visit. They are widely used to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. They cannot be used to get information from your computer about you or read any personal material kept by you on your computer.

The cookie is used to make the link between you and the information you have provided to the website. The creation of a cookie on your computer does not give the website any access to other information such as your email address.

International Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations cover the use of cookies and similar technologies for storing information, and accessing information stored, on a user's equipment such as their computer or mobile. These Regulations make it compulsory for websites to inform users if cookies are being used, and to provide some information on how cookies are used.

Where Cayman Prep and High School links to external/third party websites other systems which may set cookies, we have no control over these.
