CODE OF ETHICS FOR TEACHERS AT CAYMAN PREP AND HIGH SCHOOL

Part 1: Standards for Teaching

Teaching is based on expert knowledge of the curriculum, high expectations of student learning, and is inspiring, motivating and challenging. Lessons are well-structured; good progress is promoted, and activities are adapted appropriately to students' needs and abilities. Accurate and productive use of assessment monitors student achievement. The learning environment is based on supportive student /teacher relationships. Classroom behaviour is managed effectively; behavioural issues are rare and handled professionally.

Part 2: Standards for Professional and Personal Conduct

The conduct of the teacher shall be in accordance with the Christian principles and other stipulations of his / her contract of employment, including the high professional standards and ethics of the teaching profession, for which the following is a useful example:

"A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct by treating pupils with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, in observing proper boundaries appropriate to the teaching profession and by showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others. Teachers must have a proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their attendance and punctuality."

(From: 'Teachers' Standards, Effective from 1 September 2012' (DfE) page 12)
